

RECORD OF PROCEEDINGS FOR THE GOVERNING BODY OF THE CITY OF CHEYENNE

Office of City Clerk

March 17, 2026

The Governing Body of the City of Cheyenne convened in a special meeting on this date beginning at 6:00 p.m. in City Council Chambers for the purpose of collective labor bargaining with the Cheyenne Professional Fire Fighters, International Association of Fire Fighters, Local No. 279. Present were: MAYOR – Patrick Collins; COUNCIL MEMBERS – Dr. Aldrich, Dr. Emmons, Mr. Esquibel, Mr. Laybourn, Mr. Moody, Mr. Segrave and Mr. White. Absent: Dr. Rinne and Mr. Wolfe. Also present: Kylie Soden, City Clerk; John Brodie, City Attorney; Amber Ash, Mayor’s Chief of Staff; Robin Lockman, City Treasurer and Chief Andrew Dykshorn, Deputy Chief Don Wood and Deputy Chief of Administrative Services, Glenn Rodgers, Cheyenne Fire Rescue. The pledge of allegiance was recited.

Chris Thoms, President, Local #279, advised the parties remain at an impasse regarding wages and expressed a preference to proceed with reviewing other sections of the contract. Mayor Collins emphasized the City’s goal of maintaining Cheyenne Fire Rescue as the best place to work. He reviewed current staffing levels, new fire stations, apparatus and equipment, and highlighted the City’s ongoing investments in firefighter safety. Mayor Collins expressed concern about losing momentum on progress made in negotiations and further reviewed compensation data, stating that Cheyenne firefighters are currently the highest paid in the state. He provided additional comparative information for Loveland, CO, including staffing levels, call volumes per station, number of stations, battalion chief assignments, as well as cost of living considerations and noted that Loveland is not unionized. He reiterated that wages remain the primary point of concern and expressed reluctance to move forward with other sections of the agreement at this time. Mr. Thoms requested a recess at 6:20 p.m., and Union members vacated chambers to the HR conference room to caucus.

Mayor Collins reconvened the special session at 6:45 p.m. Mr. Thoms acknowledged that wages remain the primary issue and expressed the Union’s desire to continue moving forward with negotiations. Mayor Collins stated that the parties remain at a standstill pending agreement on certain key issues. Mr. Thoms requested that previously referenced data be provided for review in advance of the next meeting.

There being no further business to come before the governing body, the meeting was officially adjourned at 6:49 p.m.
